

WINE ENTHUSIAST 92
POINTS

Merryvale 2019 Merlot (Napa Valley)

This deep and structured wine is worth keeping while it develops more complexity over time. Well-concentrated black cherry and blueberry flavors are shaded by subtle dark chocolate and mint accents, and fine-grained tannins give an appetizing grip the texture. Best from 2026-2032.

—J.G. Published 9/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST 92
POINTS

Merryvale 2019 Merlot (Napa Valley)

This deep and structured wine is worth keeping while it develops more complexity over time. Well-concentrated black cherry and blueberry flavors are shaded by subtle dark chocolate and mint accents, and fine-grained tannins give an appetizing grip the texture. Best from 2026-2032.

—J.G. Published 9/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST 92
POINTS

Merryvale 2019 Merlot (Napa Valley)

This deep and structured wine is worth keeping while it develops more complexity over time. Well-concentrated black cherry and blueberry flavors are shaded by subtle dark chocolate and mint accents, and fine-grained tannins give an appetizing grip the texture. Best from 2026-2032.

—J.G. Published 9/1/2023

WINE ENTHUSIAST 92
POINTS

Merryvale 2019 Merlot (Napa Valley)

This deep and structured wine is worth keeping while it develops more complexity over time. Well-concentrated black cherry and blueberry flavors are shaded by subtle dark chocolate and mint accents, and fine-grained tannins give an appetizing grip the texture. Best from 2026-2032.

—J.G. Published 9/1/2023