Located at the heart of the Côte de Beaune, Meursault is one of Burgundy's flagship villages and among the most reputed in Burgundy. Aerial photos of the village town hall's multi-coloured varnished roof tiles are famous worldwide. Better known for its white wines, the village of Meursault also has several terroirs that are suitable for Pinot Noir, such as our plot, which is located less than 400 metres from "Les Santenots".

Tasting notes

Fine, delicate nose redolent of mainly red fruit and floral aromas with notes of red flowers and daffodils. The palate is fleshy with a discrete hint of oak, which enhances this wine's balanced structure.

Food/wine pairing

Ideal with tender red meats, small game cooked in wine, and delicate cheeses.
