

Fine results despite historically low harvest for the 64th Hospices de Nuits-Saint-Georges wine auction

Sunday March 9, 2025 - the 64th Hospices de Nuits-Saint-Georges wine auction, led for the first time by iDealWine, France's leading wine auction house, was held at the Château du Clos de Vougeot.

Although the 2024 harvest was historically low due to complicated weather conditions, the quality of the wines was high.

The overall result of the sale of 35.5 barrels of the 2024 vintage amounted to €796,000 (vs. 144 barrels in 2023). The average price per barrel was +41.5% higher than at the last sale, testifying to the mobilization of buyers in an uncertain economic climate.

Albert Bichot's historic support for Hospices de Nuits

Albert Bichot, an independent family winery founded in 1831, is a great patron in the fields of culture and heritage in Burgundy.

If Albert Bichot has been the 1st buyer at the Hospices de Beaune wine auction for over 25 years, the Hospices de Nuits-Saint-Georges auction remains a great moment for the House, especially since it is historically linked to it.

Indeed, until the 14th century, the Hospices de Nuits wines were matured in the cellars of the Domaine du Clos Frantin in Nuits-Saint-Georges, a property neighbouring the hospital which is now owned by Albert Bichot.

A strong commitment despite the small number of pieces on sale

Maison Albert Bichot acquired 9 barrels of the 35.5 barrels put on sale this year for €242,500, representing 30% of the value and 25% of the volume of the sale.

The Cuvée des Bienfaiteurs, whose profits are donated to the “Coucou Nous Voilou” association for hospitalized children, raised over €53,900 thanks to the generosity of 96 donors, including Albert Bichot. For the first time, the cuvée des Bienfaiteurs is a Nuits-Saint-Georges blanc 1er cru Les Terres Blanches Cuvée Pierre de Pême, a testament to the growing popularity of white wines from this fine appellation. For more information on the association, click here.

For the first time, the Hospices de Nuits offered a sale of 240 bottles and 120 magnums from their wine library, in vintages ranging from 2005 to 2017, raising a further €60,950.

About Maison Albert Bichot :

Albert Bichot owns 107 hectares of vines spread over 6 exceptional Domaines, 4 of which are certified organic, in Burgundy's most prestigious appellations. Drawing on its expertise as a winemaker, Albert Bichot also selects and buys grapes and musts from loyal partners, and vinifies them with the same care at its own Domaines. It's a philosophy that guarantees the production of great wines that are representative of their terroir of origin and convey the emotion that has made the House one of the greatest names in Burgundy.